The Gateway To Healing

The Amega AMpendant

Based around the same zero point energy concept as the AMwand. The pendant is designed and created using certain advanced minerals that is held in a titanium case, fusion and processed by Amegas own AMized Fusion Technology.

The pendant itself is designed to resonate at zero point energy and help the human bodies bio energy field restore itself to its natural homeostasis condition. Wearing the pendant will help to increase the bodies ability to fight stress that may come from everyday life and also help to combat the effects that can come from living in a e-smog environment.

Besides the obvious benefits of less stress, below are a few other benefits that the pendant can:

- o Help to restore the common breakdowns in your Bio energetic field.
- o Help to energize your body's fluids and cells
- o Help to energize liquids that you drink, the air you breathe and the food you eat.
- o Neutralize the harmful effects (energetically) from the liquid, air and food you come in contact with on a daily basis.
- o Strengthens and restores natural balance to the body's Bio-energy.
- o Help to increase energy and strengthen the flow of energy in your body.
- o Stimulates bodily functions and immunity by facilitating the delivery of oxygen to cells

While the AMwand is something that you can use when needed, the pendant will allow the cells within your body to resonate at zero point energy. So they are constantly being reminded of their original state and in turn will be working to create a balance of energy within you while you are wearing it.
